CA KENT ONLINE CONDUCT READING

Meetings should be a safe place to come, with a spiritual atmosphere, remembering love and tolerance is our code.

This online meeting of CA does not tolerate bullying, harassment, discriminatory or predatory behaviour, foul or abusive language or actions. Anyone conducting themselves in this way WILL have their screens and microphones locked and may be ejected from the meeting and the person responsible may be reported to Zoom.

Each group meeting has the right to do this to ensure the safety of its members. It is each group member's responsibility to address such behaviours if they see it going on, if you do see such behaviours please message the meeting host who along with the committee can deal with the issue.

In these uncertain times, the only thing that is certain is we need each other and to be united.
